RE: Mortgage on 11 Farnum Pike, Smithfield, Rhode Island

Dear Ms. Martins a/k/a Delinda Martins:

This office has been retained by Green Tree Servicing LLC to foreclose on a mortgage dated January 23, 2007 from Delinda M. Martins to Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc., in the original principal amount of $195,000.00. Our client informs us that you are in breach of the conditions of the loan documents. We have been instructed to bring a foreclosure in the name of Federal National Mortgage Association under the Power of Sale contained in your mortgage and by entry. You are further notified that the note is hereby accelerated and the entire balance is due and payable forthwith and without further notice. Even though the note has been accelerated, you may still have the right to reinstate the loan. If so, and if you desire to reinstate the loan, you will need to pay an amount of money sufficient to bring the loan fully current.

Under the terms of the note and mortgage, there is outstanding through the date of this letter $188,508.35 in principal and $82,348.35 in interest and other charges for a total of $270,856.70. Furthermore, attorney's fees and costs and other charges will continue to accrue pursuant to the terms of the loan documents.

The amount necessary to reinstate or pay off the loan changes daily. You may order a reinstatement or payoff 24 hours a day on-line by going to www.hloreinstatement.com or to www.hlopayoff.com. Please follow the instructions contained on the web page. Please note that only requests made by owners, borrowers, mortgagors and authorized parties will be processed. You may also contact us during business hours to request a reinstatement or payoff by calling (617) 558-0598. When completing the on-line form or when calling our office, please reference your Case Number 200810-2479 so that we may process your request more quickly.

Unless you, within thirty days after receipt of this notice, dispute the validity of the debt or any portion thereof, the debt will be assumed to be valid by this office. If you notify this office in writing within the thirty-day period that the debt, or any portion thereof, is disputed, this office will obtain verification of the debt or a copy of a judgment against you and a copy of such verification or judgment will be mailed to you by this office. Upon your written request within the thirty-day period, this office will provide you with the name and address of the original creditor, if different from the current creditor.

The law does not require this office to wait until the end of the thirty-day period before proceeding with legal action to collect the debt. However, if you notify this office in writing within the thirty-day period described in the previous paragraph that the debt, or any portion thereof, is disputed, or that you request the name and address of the original creditor, this office shall cease collection of the debt, or any disputed portion thereof, until this office obtains verification of the debt or a copy of a judgment, or the name and address of the original creditor, and a copy of such verification or judgment, or name and address of the original creditor, is mailed to you by this office.

Your failure to dispute the validity of the debt may not be construed by any court as an admission of liability by you.

Very truly yours,

Maggie L Pitts-Dilley, Esquire
